Conflict of Interest Disclosure

All individuals participating in the review, scoring, and development of recommendations for funding proposals/applications must have NO INTEREST in those entities submitting proposals/applications. If the individual has an interest in those entities, a CONFLICT OF INTEREST could exist.

If a conflict exists, the reviewer must immediately disclose this conflict to First 5 Fresno County and refrain from participating in any portion of the review process involving the identified entity or entities.

A conflict of interest exists if a person, his/her family or his/her employer stands to benefit personally, professionally, or financially from the outcomes of a decision. Any such conflict may detract from a fair and impartial review process. Examples of a conflict of interest include, but are not limited to, the following relationships between a reviewer and an applicant agency:

- a) Ownership or financial interest;
- b) Director, trustee or officer;
- c) Employee;
- d) Relative, spouse, domestic partner; or
- e) Provider of goods or services, material or other substantial interest that might inhibit objective decisions.

Furthermore, all matters discussed among reviewers within the context of reviewing and selecting proposals/applications, including evaluation scores, related discussion, and the review process, are CONFIDENTIAL and cannot be shared by reviewers with any individuals outside of the review activities unless First 5 Fresno County specifically authorizes such disclosure.

I have read the above Conflict of Interest Disclosure and agree to abide by it at all times if selected to serve as a member of the Review Committee.
